BRIBE OFFERED IN "FRAME UP"

(By Associated Press.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 3.—Charges that Israel Weinberg was offered a $5000 bribe to "frame up" evidence against Thomas J. Mooney, on trial here for murder as a result of a preparedness day bomb explosion last July, were hurled in court late yesterday by Attorney W. Bourke Cockran, chief counsel for Mooney.

Cockran said: "Now tell of the attempt made to bribe you by Martin Swanson." Swanson is a private detective who has figured largely in the case.

Assistant District Attorney Edward A. Cunha objected to the question and was overruled after Cockran had declared that the defense would prove that Swanson had offered the alleged bribe in an effort to connect Mooney with the dynamiting of United Railways power stations at San Bruno, Cal., in 1915.

"We can prove that Swanson came to jail after Weinberg's arrest and looked through the bars at Weinberg, leered at him and used this expression:

"I told you I would get you," Cockran declared.

The court took under advisement the question of whether Weinberg would be allowed to tell of the alleged attempted bribery.

Both Mooney and his wife testified today. The former identified herself in photographs showing that she and her husband were on the roof of a building a mile away from the scene of the explosion within a few minutes of its occurrence.

The West End shipped this morning an unusually large quota of bullion for the second half of January, comprising 37 bars weighing 59,799 ounces, valued at $50,829.15. This is on the basis of 85 cents an ounce, although many persons believe the estimate should be at a dollar an ounce to cover gold and silver contents.

EXPOSITION PUTS OVER DIRTY BUNK

The Tonopah Belmont Development company and the Midway Consolidated Mining company have received at last the awards granted them for their displays of silver ores at the Panama-Pacific exposition. The Belmont was awarded a gold medal and the Midway a silver medal.

But when the blue plush cases were opened it was found that the medallions were bronze!

A multigraph letter accompanied the medallions. It notified the recipient that if he was entitled to a bronze medal, he's gotten it, but if it were to be a silver or a gold medal, he could provide his own aurum or argentum and coat it himself. A very liberal proffer, indeed!

AMUSEMENTS

LIBERTY THEATER

Dorothy Dalton and Howard Hickman in "The Jungle Child." A girl of Spanish parentage, lost while a child in the jungles of Brazil, during an exploration expedition, is reared by an old woman of a half civilized tribe of Indians. She grows up to be a woman of superhuman strength. This Amazon later falls in love with a miscreant doctor who learns of the girl's antecedents and the great wealth awaiting her. His marriage to the Amazon, her education, the doctor's perfidy and his final punishment form the basis of a stirring denouement. Also a two-reel Keystone comedy, "The Lady Drummer." Tomorrow, Sir Herbert Free in "Old Folks At Home," a story of a mother and father who sacrifice for their children, and a two-reel Keystone comedy, "His Busted Trust." A two-hour show. Don't forget Kolb & Dill Monday.

BUTLER THEATER

Another big seven-reel program will be shown at the Butler this evening. A double bill—two features. One for the grown-ups and one for the kiddies. The five-reel feature is entitled "The Brand of Cowardice," a thrilling story of the Mexican border, with Grace Valentine and Lionel Barrymore in the leading roles. John W. Noble, West Point man and former lieutenant in the United States army, directed "The Brand of Cowardice." The play calls for much precision as to military life and Mr. Noble supplied this necessary element, making the military scenes in the picture absolutely true to life and just as they actually are in regular army life. The other feature is a two-reel comedy, brand new, featuring the celebrated comedian, Billie Ritchie, in a production entitled "Where's My Wife," and guaranteed to contain a laugh in every foot. The kiddies will all remember the Billie Ritchie comedy shown here a short time ago. Tomorrow, Wallace Reid and Cleo Ridgely in "The House of the Golden Windows," in five reels; the second number of Pearl White in "Pearl of the Army," two reels; and "Farmer Al Falfa's Blind Pig," a Paramount-Bray comedy, one reel. It will be some show.
